Kenya has been in the news politically in recent weeks, but did you know that the churches continue to have an impact throughout the country? Today after second service in Rm 190, Joe & Kim Cluff invite you to come for a lunch of soup, bread and dessert and to hear and pray. Come and hear an update on the political movements in the country. Hear anew what God is doing in the Maasai churches in Kenya. Come and pray for justice and peace in Kenya. e - COLLEGE-AGE MINISTRY

College-age individuals are invited to start 2008 with "e," a unique, relaxed gathering that meets Sundays. We will spend the first part of the year discussing real-world faith and ways to biblically engage our culture through several of the Nooma video series by Rob Bell. These 10 to 15 minute videos cover issues like suffering, forgiveness, and evangelism in the post-modern era. Each Sunday, after initially meeting outside Room 210 (Student Ministry area) at 12:15, we will head out for lunch and conversation. This is a great opportunity to grow your faith with other people, invite friends, and enjoy a fresh way of looking at your walk with Christ. Please stop by after the second service or call Jerry Risser at 576-9037 for details.

WOMEN'S FALL RETREAT PLANNING

It seems a cliché to say the Women's Fall Retreat is a place of renewal and relaxation; it's a place to change perspective of your life and a place to meet women who share your challenges. But, that's the reality. God meets us mightily when we slow down! Why not think about becoming one of the women to plan this event! The 2008 Women's Fall Retreat planning committee will meet February 7 at 7:00 pm in Rm 150. Call Emily Musgrave with questions. 252.5432

THE CHURCH AT PRAYER

WEDNESDAYS AT 6:30 PM

Every Wednesday evening, you are invited to join a group that prays for the people, the local ministry and outreach, and the Global missionary family of Faith Church. We meet in Rm. 152 (the Church Library) at 6:30 pm. Let's make 2008 a year of prayer as we look to God for His leading and blessing on our ministry. "The prayer of the upright is His delight." (Proverbs 15:8)
